

7 April 2016

WTO Post-Nairobi: After Success Come Questions and Possibilities

By Evan Rogerson

Synopsis

The WTO’s ministerial talks in Nairobi recently was a success in terms of moving global trade negotiations forward. How to act on this momentum is the core issue in the current “period of reflection”.

See more: <https://www.rsis.edu.sg/rsis-publication/rsis/co16076-wto-post-nairobi-after-success-come-questions-and-possibilities/#.Vw5-MKyzDco>

7 April 2016

Singapore’s Approach to Africa: Promising, But More to Do

By Robert MacPherson

Synopsis

Africa is one of the few regions globally presenting high double digit growth possibilities. Singapore is testing the waters as Africa embarks on a decisive transformational journey towards prosperity.

See more: <https://www.rsis.edu.sg/rsis-publication/rsis/co16077-singapores-approach-to-africa-promising-but-more-to-do/#.Vw5-UayzDco>

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
“THE EU AND CHINA:
CLIMATE CHANGE AND ENERGY SECURITY

Brussels, 2 May 2016

European Economic and Social Committee, 8.30–17.30

Location: JDE 62 & Atrium 6, European Economic and Social Committee, Rue Belliard 99, 1040 Brussels, Belgium

On 2 May 2016, the EU-China Research Centre and the Baillet Latour Chair of European Union-China Relations at the College of Europe in Bruges invite scholars and experts to join the international conference “The EU and China: Climate Change and Energy Security”. The conference will be held in the European Economic and Social Committee in Brussels. It is the objective of this one-day conference to bring together European and Chinese researchers and policymakers to explore the topic of climate change and energy security in the context of EU-China relations. It will do so by focusing on both the EU and China’s approaches to fight climate change, opportunities for cooperation as well as the issue of energy security in the EU and China within a wider geopolitical context.

Four panels will be organized, focusing on the following topics:

- PANEL 1: COP21 – Assessment of the outcome and the way forward: what role(s) for China and the EU?
- PANEL 2: The low-carbon society: aims and visions in China and the EU
- PANEL 3: Cooperation on energy technologies: partnership or competition?
- PANEL 4: The geopolitics of energy security: what is at stake for the EU and China?

Registration

This conference is open to the public, but registration is required. The online registration form is available on the following website: <https://www.coleurope.eu/events/eu-and-china-climate-change-and-energy-security>. For questions about the conference, please do not hesitate to contact us via the e-mail address EU-China-Conferences@coleurope.eu